

Statement Changes

FEM Electric's statements have a new look. The rates have not changed only the look of the statement changed. Each location will have the charges clearly broken out into the rate structure that applies to that location. You will now see the availability charge and the kilowatt hour step rate clearly broken out. Previously, these charges were bulked together. Here is an example of what a General Service Rate statement looks like. All rates are posted on the FEM Electric website www.femelectric.coop under the Customer Service section.
